

Turn Your "Junk Mail" into $6,000 Cash . . .

Don't laugh and don't throw away your junk mail – it's worth thousands of dollars!! You could be collecting up to $1,500 or more simply by filling out a form and putting it in the mail.

Imagine making $1,500 a week - $72,000 a year off that darn mail that clutters your mailbox. Almost nobody likes junk mail and you can't seem to stop it. A few smart folks have learned the inside secrets of turning their junk mail into cash.

How many pieces of junk mail did YOU receive last week? Ten? Twenty? Even if you only receive a few pieces per month, I'll show you how to quickly and easily convert it into cash

How Much Is Your Junk Mail Worth?

I've personally received up to $1,000 from one piece of junk mail. An average junk mail letter brings me $35. If you get 10 pieces of junk mail a week, you could get back $350 a week. 20 to 100 pieces might bring $700 to $3,500 next week!

To be honest, some pieces of mail may not be worth anything. But everything from insurance solicitations, to chain letters and even full color catalogs could be worth $20 to $1,000 or even tens of thousands of dollars!

One person listed below made $10,000 in 6 weeks.

You Can Do This

It's that simple. After all, I flunked the 6th grade. Then I failed at five businesses. Things have really turned around for me. Last month I banked over $19,000 and I'm just getting started.

Next month I'm buying an $18,000 Ltd Crown Victoria. All this from my "Junk Mail" business. (By the way I like getting mail and no longer consider it junk).

To give you an idea of how profitable the "junk mail" business has been to me, I've listed my bank deposits for the last few months below.

November - $15,356 • December - $9,723

I'm not promising that you're going to get rich quick from junk mail. I am promising to show you how I and others are making in excess of $1,500 weekly for little more than negotiating a price and mailing off a secret form given in my manual.
